c. Asked Mr. [redacted] to furnish the information contained in IN 47272, respecting possible Soviet blockade in Berlin, to Mrs. Eleanor Dulles in the Department of State.

d. Stated he felt that our stations in the Far East should be furnished some sort of guidance with respect to the current situation in that area. Mr. Amory suggested that a brief "estimate of the situation" would be of value. The Director agreed and asked DD/I to draft such an estimate for inclusion as a first paragraph in a cable to be followed by a general guidance paragraph prepared by DD/P.

Mr. Amory:

Noted that OCD had obtained subscriptions to FOREIGN AFFAIRS in order that this magazine might be sent to our overseas stations.
